$51,000 FOR OUR CUP BID

AUSTRALIA, with a lot of prestige at stake in Asia, has budgeted to spend $51,000 on its World Cup bid this year.

Most of the money will be used on a training program to bring the team to its peak for the elimination games in Seoul, South Korea, in October.

There are two aims behind this big cash splash.

A good Cup effort would lift Australia in the eyes of the soccer world — and how much we need it — and also preserve the good name we earned during our 10-games-10-wins triumph in South-East Asia in 1967.

There has been criticism of the Australian Soccer Federation, which has administrative troubles and whose coffers are far from full, for deciding to put a team into the world competition this year.

Many people claim we should have waited another four years and invested the $51,000 in coaching and junior schemes.

There is plenty of reason in this argument, but now we have decided to compete we must make the best of what is going to be a difficult job, moneywise and on the field.

Australia will play in one Asian group against Japan, South Korea and Rhodesia. The other group is North Korea, New Zealand and Israel.

The winners of each group will play off for the right to go into the last 6 for the finals in Mexico next year.

We will have tough opponents in Japan, a fast-improving soccer nation who shared a three-match international series against us last year, and South Korea. Rhodesia are an unknown quantity, but cannot be written off.

North Korea, the strongest Asian line-up, caused an upset by downing Italy and giving Portugal a fright in the 1966 finals in England. They look certain winners of their group.

Despite a slow start to training, which has brought just criticism, Australian officials are confident we can do well.

State squads, from which the Australian team will be drawn, have been in training for several weeks and the tempo will be stepped up from now on.

The same officials who steered the Australian team to its 1967 Asian victory will be in charge of the World Cup set-up.

The manager will be John Barclay, the Victorian State team boss, who also held the reins during the internationals against Japan.

The coach again will be Joe Vlasits, of Sydney, the masseur Victoria's Lou Lazzari and the medical officer Dr. Brian Corrigan, who also cared for our athletes at last year's Olympics.

Barclay has plenty of faith in the players, many of whom will be those who played in Asia, and believes the Australians will give a good account of themselves.

"There will be plenty of talent in the side," he said. "And people should not write us off too soon. We came good in Asia and we can do it again."

Before the World Cup games the Australians will play a four-match international series against the Greek national side in July. Two of the games will be in Melbourne and two in Sydney.

This series will be the highlight of the Cup preparation and the outcome should give a good indication to our chances in Seoul in October.

The Australians will need to be 100 per cent fit because in Seoul they will have to play six matches in a fortnight

Our Cup games are scheduled as follows: October 1, v Japan; October 4, v Rhodesia; October 6, v South Korea; October 9, v South Korea; October 13, v Japan; October 15, v Rhodesia.

The dates for the warm-up series against the Greeks are: July 20, in Sydney; July 27, in Melbourne; July 30, in Sydney August 3, in Melbourne.

JUVENTUS are hoping for big things from Bryan Thomson, 24, (above), a top scorer from the Highland League in Scotland, who arrived last week.

Last season Thomson grabbed an impressive bag of 48 goals for his old club, and before leaving this year had scored another 26.

Thomson got off to a good start for Juventus against Polonia on Sunday, showing clever distribution and scoring a brilliant goal.

Ray Seaword, 22, a full-back, arrived with Thomson. He had experience with English sides Newcastle United and Hartlepools United.

Regular goalie Dieter Voigt will face a challenge for the job between the sticks from two other new men, Bruno Putkowski and Jack Reilly.

Putkowski is the former Polonia and Victoria goalie. He has just returned from Poland. Reilly, a 6 ft. Scot, played with Hibernian

SIDE SET FOR RISE

It's J.U.S.T. — the team which was on nodding terms with relegation for a long time last year — for the title this season!

Confident J.U.S.T. president, Tony Kovacs, who has taken over the reins again after a long break, makes this prediction.

J.U.S.T. didn't look like championship material in the 1-1 draw with George Cross at St. Kilda last Saturday.

But there is a long way to go yet, and Kovacs stands by his bold claim . . . and he makes out a good argument.

"We have been doing a lot of team building since last season's nightmare," he said. "And we should soon have a well balanced line-up with several stars.

"Three of these, Mihajlovic, Buljevic and Zoraja, already have proved themselves. They will be joined by two more Yugoslavian first division players soon."

Kovacs said the club had a top coach in Zvonimir Rasic, who also was the Victorian coach, and was well organised on the administrative side.

One man who had joined the committee and should help things along was Tony Vella, the former Australian international wing-half who skippered and coached J.U.S.T. and George Cross and was Victorian team skipper.

"I am sure the fans will be behind us, too," added Kovacs.

"Before the League started last Saturday we already had about 125 members who had paid $4700 in subscriptions. There should be plenty more when we start winning."

The two new men, who are expected within days, are Slobodan Lukic, 22, a wing-half or inside-forward, and Dragoljub Utjesenovic, 21, a full-back.

Lukic played with Rijeka and Urjesenovic with O.F. Belgrade. Both earned a name as top men in their class.

Roving talent scout from the Rovers

Metropolitan League fourth division side Doncaster Rovers have got a man who is really going roving for them in a bid to bring more good young players into the fold.

He is Ray Shew, founder of the club and later secretary, who is off on a two-year trip back to Britain.

Ray will be working, of course. But, being an Englishman who eats, lives and sleeps soccer, much of his time will be spent watching big games and hanging around non-league grounds.

And all the time he will have an eye open for useful boys who might fancy having a go at reaching the top in Soccer Down Under.

One of his first calls will be to their namesake club, Doncaster Rovers, who are now heading the English fourth division.

He hopes to have talks with the Yorkshire side's secretary-manager Tommy Garnett, who he thinks might be able to put him on to some promising players who have itchy feet.

Said Ray: "We have already corresponded with our namesake over other matters so I am hoping this will help me to get into the inner sanctum".

Ray will continue his search in the North and Scotland ("I haven't been up there much") and in his old stamping ground around London. The Athenian and Isthmian Leagues could be productive.

It was towards the end of 1966 when Ray — and several willing helpers — started the Doncaster club. He had been in Australian about 12 months.

Now the fourth division outfit runs two senior teams and seven junior line-ups, a creditable performance in anyone's language.

"People in Doncaster and surrounding areas are very keen on soccer", said Ray, "and things are coming along nicely. If you dig deep enough there is plenty of good material to be found.

"For instance, we found a boy, Donald Brownlie, who looked to have what it takes . . . and no wonder. On checking up we found he had played as a schoolboy international in Scotland.

"We lost him to Box Hill, who are playing in the State League this year, so he is getting his chance at the top now. He seems sure to do well.

"This is only one instance but it makes you wonder how many others like him are knocking about and being lost to soccer because not enough noise is made about the game".

Doncaster were fancied to be in the division four title race last year, but they went badly in the middle of the season and finished up half way down the table.

A key man in the team was player - coach Dave Martin, the former Hakoah and Alexander player, who figured at inside-forward or wing-half. He should play a big part again this year.

Like everyone else, Doncaster need a goal-scoring forward. That's why Ray Shew will be keeping his fingers crossed during his stay in England.

GEORGE CROSS forward John Ferguson led in this race to the ball in the match against J.U.S.T. last Saturday.

J.U.S.T. LEND A GOALIE

Altona, who play in the Metropolitan League first division, should have one of the League's youngest goalies in action this season.

He is Hans van der Poel, 16, who has been loaned to Altona by State League side J.U.S.T.

This fine gesture by J.U.S.T. will help Altona fill the gap left by the loss of regular goalie Ian Roberts, who is likely to be out for much of the season with a neck injury.

Officials reckon Hans shows great promise and could win a regular first team berth.

Two other J.U.S.T. men, forwards Ray King and Malcolm Watkins, have joined Altona. Seventeen-year-old Ray Payne, a forward from Green Gully Ajax, has also signed on the dotted line.

Altona will be bidding for a top four spot this season and hope to be good enough to reach State League status in about three years.

Their ground at Kim Reserve, Miller's Road, has been fenced at a cost of $2,000 and it is possible the council will build a pavilion for them at the end of the year.

The Noordenne Cup, an annual competition for teams in the Altona area, has been won by Sunshine City for the fourth year running. Ten teams played this year but it is hoped to lift the number to 16 next time.

Hellas must improve

Prague took the Ampol Night Trophy at Olympic Park last Wednesday when they defeated South Melbourne Hellas more easily than the 2-0 score suggests.

Hellas were only a shadow of their true selves, and gave the 4,337 crowd little to enthuse about.

For the most of the first half both sides played negative, unattractive soccer.

Prague tried to open the game out, but spoiling tactics and close marking by the home team ruined the game as a spectacle.

Striker Manuel posed a threat when in sight of Hellas goal. He tried several long-range efforts but they missed narrowly or were competently handled by Stevens.

Five minutes before half time, long-striding winger Reilly cut in at top speed to screw the ball into the top corner of the net. This put Prague one up at the interval.

Within three minutes of the resumption, Prague took a commanding 2-nil lead. A concerted forward attack was rounded off by Manuel. His oblique drive from close range left Stevens hopeless.

The visitors eased up after this and were content to hold Hellas. Hard working pivot Roussis, Bedford, Kelly and Mantarakes were best of a mediocre home team.

Prague looked a well-balanced combination. Goalkeeper King positioned well and handled cleanly. The team is clever, young and strong. Their forwards, quick to sweep into attack, always looked dangerous. Centre-half Zeman marshalled his defence so well that Hellas scarcely managed a dangerous shot.

Hellas must improve on this showing if they are to be a threat in the League competition.

40 SEEK TOP JOB

There has been a lot of talk that nobody wants the top job in Australian soccer — secretary of the A.S.F. — but as usual much of it has been unfounded.

The real story is that the Federation has received applications from 40 people in Australia and the task of sifting through them and picking the right man is now under way.

We should know who is the lucky man in about three weeks.

New rulings by referees

THE Australian Soccer Referees Federation (Victorian Division) have introduced three new rulings this year which they believe "are progressive and will lift the standard of refereeing".

The new moves are compulsory physical training, compulsory medical certificates and regrading of active referees.

In its circular for March the Federation says: "A larger inspection committee this year should see referees watched more regularly to enable advice to be given on their weaknesses."

The selection committee for this season will be T. Anthony, chairman; P. McDonald and J. Dunbar.

VICTORIA BEATEN

Victoria took a 4-1 beating from a powerful New South Wales in the big game in Sydney on Monday — but the future is not as black as it looks.

The Victorians, including several new men, played their full part in a crowd-pleasing 90 minutes of soccer and showed that they have potential.

But on this form they have a long way to go and changes will have to be made.

There were glaring gaps in the defence and lack of cohesian and fire in front.

The faults were not too evident in the first half when lady luck had a hand in saving the New South Wales goal, with a defender's arm and the crossbar stopping scoring Victorian shots.

Then Schaeffer cleared off the New South Wales' line with the goalie beaten. But the Victorian effort soon died and just before half-time Denton put N.S.W. 1-up.

In the second half, the visitors crumbled when the N.S.W. men, hard tackling, faster to the ball, and showing more method and bite, got into their stride.

Centre-forward Alston took advantage of a blunder in the Victorian defence to score N.S.W.'s second.

Striker McCallum lifted Victoria's hopes when he sent a smart header home, but soon after Denton made it 3-1 for N.S.W.

Towards the end Alston dashed through another gap in the Victorian defence to beat goalie Kastner, who made some daring saves and did not deserve to have four goals put past him.

Ackerley shared the N.S.W. defence honors with Schaeffer, and Warren and Blue were dangerous in midfield.

The Victorians kept prodding away but there were no stars, and a much bigger effort is needed.

BOX HILL CAUSED THE ONLY UPSET

CRITICS wrote off Box Hill's chances against Croatia in the opening round and were confounded in the only shock in a quiet start to the season.

Play lacked purpose and design in several games. Basic skills such as accurate passing, creating open spaces, making position and use of the squared ball were missing.

Many players lacked fitness and games were spoiled as a spectacle by too much crowded play.

BOX HILL 2 (Craig, Oxton), CROATIA 2 (Hargreaves, J. McKay). Referee: Mr. J. Dixon. Wembley Park. Crowd 855.

Ignoring Croatia's mighty reputation, Box Hill got straight down to business. Player-coach Peter Craig gave them a great boost when he cracked home a 20-yard drive in the third minute. It was uphill all the way for the champions from then on.

Even after Hargreaves equalised, Box Hill came again and Oxton put them in front. Time was running out when Jim McKay snatched a goal and a point for the visitors.

Croatia showed plenty of class and pressured the home side for long periods, but speed, guts and determination counteracted them.

Newcomer John Brown, formerly of George Cross, p /ot Young and Brownlie formed a tremendous half-back line. Brownlie blotted out international Billy Vojtek, and with former Croatia full-back Bobby McLachlan effectively subdued Brian Adlam.

LIONS 0, RINGWOOD CITY WILHEILMINA 2 (Steele 2) Referee: Mr. C. Contini. Montgomery Park. Crowd 535.

Lions started off well, but faded as the game progressed. Walker failed to clear and Spiekerman found an unmarked Steele for Wilhelmina to take the lead five minutes before the interval.

From then on they never looked likely to lose it. Lions finished badly. One miss by Rooney from four yards was almost unbelieveable.

Frank Schwartz, at full-back, was the Lions best player, with Renos van Zeist and young Michael Starczak giving good support.

Jimmy Anderson in the forward line was a great trier. Newcomer Colin Horner, from Park Rangers, had a frustrating baptism. He was up against the best man on the field in Bobby Adams.

Syd Steele scored two fine goals and hit the woodwork twice. He looked dangerous every time he streaked upfield.

GEORGE CROSS 1 (McCallum), FOOTSCRAY — J.U.S.T. 1 (Buljevic). Referee: Mr. B. Finnegan. St. Kilda. Crowd 2290.

George Cross started at top speed, but the more forceful play of J.U.S.T. left them in check. Methodical approach work gradually put the visitors on top.

Defences were generally in command, and inaccurate finishing kept the scoresheet clean for nearly an hour. There was a measure of good fortune for Cross when McCallum played onside to open their account.

Ten minutes from time, Buljevic's 30-yard drive brought Footscray the goal and point they deserved.

Falconer Ireland, Horst Friederberg and John Gardiner shone for Cross, with Johnny Sanchez masterminding most constructive moves.

Billy Rice won the battle with Nick McCallum, demonstrating that he is still one of our best pivots. Frank Micic had a quiet first game for Footscray and looked rather weary.

POLONIA 0, JUVENTUS 3 (Connelly, Epifano, Thomson). Referee: Mr. R. Lamb. Maribyrnong. Crowd 2950.

Juventus easily defeated Polonia and provided entertaining football in the process. Newcomers Jack Reilly (in goal), Alex Irvine (centre-half), spearhead Bryan Thomson and linkman Bob Robertson all played extremely well.

Irvine, an old style stopper, held the Polonia forwards in a vice-like grip. Robertson is a forceful player with delightful touches.

Thomson has deceptive speed and fine ball control. His goal was one of the finest seen at Maribyrnong. Coolly lobbing the ball over a defender, he took one step and crashed home an unstoppable drive.

Polonia pivot Zurawski was the best man on the ground. He scarcely put a foot wrong and held together an uncertain defence.

On this showing, Juventus are well on the way back.

PORT MELBOURNE — 1 (Reid), South Melbourne-HELLAS 3 (Pyrgolios, Kelly, Gorrie) Referee: Mr. G. Harrison. Olympic Park. Crowd 4298.

This game was won and lost in the first half. It never rose to a high standard, but Hellas got the goals, giving them a 3-0 half time advantage.

Jimmy Pyrgolios gave them an early lead and near the interval a gleeful David Kelly moved up to score with a curious lob which dropped just under the bar.

Gorrie quickly followed with the third goal.

Stevens played another solid game in goal for Hellas and Andre Roussis and Johnny Bedford subdued most Slavia attacks.

Ian Reid reduced Slavia's arrears in the second half when Hellas seemed content to hold on to their lead, but they never looked likely to pull the game out of the fire.

HAKOAH 1 (Armstrong), MELBOURNE 1 (Scott, penalty) Referee: Mr. G. Pedlar. Middle Park. Crowd 1400.

An entertaining game ended in a hard fought draw. On balance Hakoah should have won, and only a late penalty goal cost them full points.

Both sides were guilty of bad finishing, but Hakoah missed more chances. Shots from Armstrong, Bridgeman and McDonald all flashed narrowly outside.

Melbourne's new spearhead Rattray was well held by big van Alphen. He showed plenty of life early, but was gradually subdued and faded in the second half.

Wingers Pocock and Myers were Melbourne's best attackers and a number of efforts deserved greater success.

NOBBY HAS TO WAIT

FIERY Manchester United wing-half Nobby Stiles, an England World Cup hero, will have to wait another year before getting a chance to complete his honours list.

One thing is missing — an F.A. Cup winners' medal.

At club level he has League championship and European Cup medals. At representative level he has schoolboy, youth, Under-23, League and full England honors.

Nobby has a Cup medal for playing in early rounds when United won at Wembley in 1963, but he doesn't count that. He wants "a real one".

Wilhelmina gets boost

THREE men who played under Ringwood City-Wilhelmina coach Les Courtier in South Africa have joined the Dutch side.

They are Brian Edgeley, a centre-forward, Freddie Bunce, a utility forward, and linkman David Pygall. Edgeley played with Welsh team Cardiff City.

Colin Horner, 25, from Metro side Park Rangers, has signed for Lions. Another newcomer is Stephen Collinson, who was a youth player with Blackpool in England.

After about five years with Lions, winger Davy Wilson has switched to Coburg in the Metro League.

ROVERS STAR IS CLEARED

At the first meeting of the Metropolitan Disciplinary Committee, Albion Rovers player Benny McQuillan was acquitted on a charge of kicking an opponent.

St. Albans player Franz Marth was given a two-week suspended sentence on a charge of showing dissent.

This committee will meet every Thursday during the League season.

Juventus will be big force

WITH only one round gone, Juventus clearly showed that they will be a force this year. New men Reilly, Irvine, Thomson and Roberts gave supporters more to enthuse over against Polonia last Sunday than the team did in the whole of 1968.

Further arrivals this week will strengthen them fore and aft.

Hakoah's formidable defence will provide a strong challenge at Olympic Park on Saturday, but I expect Juventus' goal-hungry forwards to hold the key.

Juventus to win a tough battle.

Schintler Reserve, Footscray, will be the scene of another great fight between talented J.U.S.T. and shock team Box Hill.

The visitors served notice that they mean business when they took a point from Croatia last Saturday. Despite fluent approach work, Footscray still lack finish.

Never-say-die Box Hill to share the points.

Melbourne's only goal last week was from the penalty spot, and I do not expect their forwards to have it any easier against Slavia at St. Kilda on Saturday. New striker Rattray will take time to adjust to the pace of State League.

Billy Cook's experience will give Rattray another difficult game. Wingers Pocock and Myers showed plenty of speed, determination and a readiness to shoot against Hakoah.

Slavia were overwhelmed in the first half against Hellas. Overall their performance was unimpressive, and I expect Melbourne to head the winning trail by an odd goal.

Three great games will be played on Sunday. At Middle Park, Hellas will meet Lions. On last week's showing, the home team should win easily.

Lions always have been a bogy team for Hellas. Montgomery Park's rough surface is no good for ball-players like Jimmy Rooney and Jimmy Smart.

They will show out to much advantage on Middle Park's lush surface.

The experiment of playing Tommy Roseweir at full-back failed and Steve Walker was below his best form. In a close game, Hellas should take both points.

The match of the round will be at Jubilee Park, where Ringwood-Wilhelmina will be flat out to show their supporters that last week's win was no fluke.

A strong and talented side, they will give George Cross a torrid 90 minutes. Starting in their usual tear-away style, Cross faded as the game last week.

Billy Rice blanketed their attack by nullifying striker McCallum. In his present mood, Bobby Adams could do the same.

Wilhelmina to preserve their 100% record in a tough encounter.

Recovering from their mauling at the hands of Box Hill, Croatia should successfully meet Polonia's challenge at Olympic Park. Polonia surprisingly fielded their experienced players Gaja, Gadecki and Swoboda, all reported to be leaving Australia.

They played some good football and Zurowski was a great pivot, but on the whole the team was unconvincing. I cannot see Croatia slipping up in successive weeks.

A comfortable win to the Olympic Park team.

COMEBACK

FORMER Hakoah centre-forward Bill Rowley, who has been on the touchline since breaking a leg in a game at Olympic Park two years ago, is on the comeback trail.

Bill, now 28, has set his heart on winning back a first-team spot, and if keenness counts he'll make it.

"I can't wait to get back into the game," he said. "Doctors have told me my leg is O.K. now and I started training about three weeks ago.

"I miss soccer very much and don't enjoy being a spectator. I find myself playing the game from the touchline, trying to help the boys. I'm dying to join the fray again."

Bill came to Australia to join Hakoah about five years ago. In Scotland he played with Cameron Juniors and Grangemouth United and was on Falkirk's books for a season.

A couple of youngsters who could be challenging for a first-team place soon are Steve Gadsby, a mid-field player, and lanky forward John Thomas.

Gadsby was signed from second division side Sandringham recently and Thomas stepped up from the reserves last year.

JUVENTUS INCENTIVE

Cash for the top boys

Juventus are determined to win back prestige in the State League following their big slide down the ladder last season.

Several overseas signings have been made and more men are on the way to boost the club's stock.

But amid the big drive to take a short-cut back to the top and pull back the disillusioned fans who drifted from the terraces, Juventus are also insuring for the future.

They have a big junior set-up with five coaches working long hours on the job of tracking down likely boys who, with the right handling, could step into the top ranks in a few years.

Love of the game itself — and the honors and travel it can bring — spurs on many youngsters but the Juventus littlies have been given an added incentive.

The club has introduced a scholarship scheme worth a total of $100. It will operate for the first time this season.

At the end of each year the cash will be divided among the winners in three age groups. Forty dollars will go to the best under-16 player, $30 to the winner in the under-14's and $30 to the boy who comes out on top in the under-12's.

The idea came from Juventus president Tony Longo, who is boss of the Aquila Shoes firm. He offered to put in $50 for the scheme if the club did the same.

Mr. Longo recently made a business trip to Italy during which he took time off to hunt for senior players for Juventus, but he knows that talent spotting here in Australia is really the long-term way to success.

Last week-end boys in the Juventus under-16 and under-14 sides got a big thrill. They went to Sydney to play against boys from Apia and other harbor city clubs. With them went an under-16 line-up from Metropolitan club Triestina.

The teams competed for cups given by the Italian Consulates in Melbourne and Sydney.

Another boost for the Juventus younger set is a brand new ground at Sumner Park, Brunswick, now rented all-year round by the club. The boys will train and play competition games there.

The five coaches who are busy trying to bring out the best in the juniors are all former Juventus players.

They are Guiseppe Gabidussi, a full-back who also played for Victoria, Guy Pittoni, another Victorian man at inside-forward, Lino Massese, who was reserve goalie for Victoria, Angelo Sorani, a defender, and Gian Carlo Barbon, who was a half-back.

The whole junior scheme is organised by a separate subcisions are rubber-stamped by the club.

So from all this it can be seen that, despite troubles with the seniors last year, the round ball is running pretty smoothly for the Juventus young hopefuls.

Sir Matt's after a title..

Manchester United manager Sir Matt Busby, the canny Scot who lifted the Reds to stardom, has one thing on his mind just now — the defence of their European Cup title.

But he can still find time to think of the problems facing a compatriot, Scotland team manager Bobby Brown.

Matt phoned Bobby to as if Denis Law, United's ace goal-grabber, figured in Scotland's immediate team plans.

He was told that Scotland was counting on Law being available to add goal power to the front line for the vital World Cup qualifying game with West Germany at Hampden Park next Wednesday.

Matt then promised the Scotland boss that he would try to make sure that United's European Cup semi-final games with A.C. Milan didn't clash with the Hampden match.

Set for top

CARDIFF CITY manager Jimmy Scoular believes Leeds full-back Terry Cooper is set for the top — and an England spot.

Scoular says he is more impressed each time he sees Cooper, who tackles well and is quick in recovery.

What annoys Scoular is that he could have signed the youngster himself a year or two ago when Cooper, listed as a full-back or winger, was up for sale.

SUSPENDED BY CLUB

JUVENTUS full-back, Joe Sonsini has been suspended by the club for a breach of discipline.

He is the first victim of a new get-tough policy, on and off the field, now being enforced by Juventus.

The Italian club have transferred reserve goalie Henry Kirsz to Polonia.

Another man who stepped out of line with his club is long-service Lions defender John Reilly. He has been placed on the transfer list.

Goals kept the Metro fans happy

By Alistair Cook

Metropolitan soccer got off to a flying start last weekend, when although most wins were convincing in their margins there were plenty of goals to keep most fans happy.

The 24 matches in all four division produced over a century of goals with East Melbourne Helvetic, in their match against St. Kilda, topping the bill by scoring eight.

Only four games were drawn in all Divisions, and Prahran City, with their 1-0 win over Ferntree Gully, provided the closest thing to a scoreless match.

FIRST DIVISION

Alexander, with only one newcomer from their relegated State League side in Dimitrios Svingos, trounced Altona 5-1 before close to a four-figure crowd at Olympic Park.

Altona were without promising goalkeeper Ian Roberts, who is likely to be missing for many weeks because of a displaced bone in his neck. In his place they had 16-year-old Hans Van Der Poel, who is the brother of Keith, the Altona centre-half and former Wilhelmina and J.U.S.T. player.

Preston-Makedonia introduced a newcomer in their side against Coburg, when they fielded at left-half new coach, 49-year-old former Irish international Paddy Sloan.

Sloan inspired the Preston attack which included 17-year-olds to a 3-0 win over newly promoted Coburg.

The only really shock result of the Division occurred at Ringwood where United were clearly beaten 2-5 by promoted side Keilor City, who showed plenty of strength and fighting spirit in their win.

Tony Watson put United ahead after only three minutes but this lead was short-lived because Keilor City, who are coached by former Polonia full-back Marion Gasior, equalised a few minutes later.

The young Ringwood side went ahead again after 10 minutes through De Maat and this was the score until well into the second half when Keilor City equalised and then scored three further goals to wrap up the game.

The game was marred when former Wilhelmina forward Teeuw was sent from the field.

Dandenong City, who included former Elwood-Austria forward John Jarkovics in their side, made hard work of beating St. Albans 3-2.

Although Brian Holcombe opened the scoring for Dandy after only two minutes, St. Albans equalised soon after to show that last year's unlucky side would not have it all their own way.

Top scorer Peter Lowen gave new player Jarkovics an opportunity to score after 15 minutes and he duly put City ahead.

Coach Mick Hall added to Dandenong's tally but Lowen missed a penalty kick and a couple of easy chances before the interval. After half-time, St. Albans reduced the leeway and did the majority of attacking, but poor finishing cost them any chance of winning.

Sunshine City, where former Slavia player David McCurry seems to have filled the gap left by the transfer of Billy Rogers, surprised many people by hammering Elwood-Austria 5-1.

Off on a wrong note were Maribyrnong-Triestina, who narrowly missed relegation last year, and last week were thrashed by Springvale at home.

SECOND DIVISION

In a low-scoring game at Ferntree Gully, Jacky Gow netted after 30 minutes for Prahran City following a brilliant through pass from Steve Freund.

It was a game of defences with few scoring chances and Prahran City seems to have made a good signing in ex-Essendon goalkeeper Fred Schull.

Albion Rovers improved on their recent cup result with Yallourn at Yallourn by sharing the points in a 2-2 draw.

Richmond easily defeated Moreland 4-2 at home. Mani scored two goals and new signing from East Melbourne-Helvetic, Sellhein, scored one of the others.

Green Gully Ajax provided a surprise with a comfortable 4-1 win over Frankston.

Relegated Athena found no joy in the lower division in losing 2-0 to Sandringham at home.

THIRD DIVISION

University, who dropped down a league last season, did well to draw 1-1 with one of last year's top sides Bayswater.

Brighton, after a re-organisation which brings Bobby Devlin, a member of their 1952 Dockerty Cup winning side, in as president, raised their hopes of a revival with a 4-0 win over Glenroy United.

Clayton continued in their winning form when they beat Chelsea 3-1 at home. The game was marked by the opening of a new pavilion at the Clayton ground. Eddie Lang scored after 30 minutes for Clayton. Chelsea equalised right on half time and 15 minutes later Bert Callaweart scored two quick goals to celebrate his side's first game in Third Division.

East Melbourne-Helvetic went on a goal-spree against St. Kilda in their 8-2 win and Rene Sohns scored four goals and Hans Hanze, who scored two of the others, are both likely to leave the club for a club in Wangaratta.

Ballarat, in their game at home against Princess Park Hercules, did well to draw 1-1, although reduced to 10 men for most of the game. They scored from a penalty kick by Vissers but Princess Park replied through their inside-forward.

The country side seems to have made a good capture in 20-year-old forward Stephen North, who recently arrived from English club Wealdstone United.

Croydon had a comfortable 4-1 win against Heidelberg at their new ground which was officially opened by the Mayor of Heidelberg. Croydon's main attribute was their good teamwork and their scorers were Leo Kinwell, Tony Atkinson and Terry Megginson.

FOURTH DIVISION

Mooroolbark United, who narrowly missed on promotion last year, easily defeated Rosebud 6-0. New player for Mooroolbark Alan Irving, who is an ex-Carlisle United player, scored two goals as did Vlado Klepac.

Recently United transferred promising centre-half 20-year-old Mike Bartlett to Lions for a considerable fee.

Western Suburbs, who are a new side through the amalgamation of Deer Park and West Sunshine made a good debut with a 3-0 win over South Yarra. Centre-forward Nick Adamidis scored a hat-trick.

ALISTAIR COOK SELECTS FOR THIS WEEK:

FIRST DIVISION: Alexander, Altona City, Keilor City, Dandenong City, Maribyrnong-Triestina, Springvale.

SECOND DIVISION: Yallourn, Albion Rovers, Green Gully Ajax, Frankston City, Sandringham City, Waverley.

THIRD DIVISION: University, Bayswater, Croydon, Ballarat, East Melbourne-Helvetic, Brighton.

FOURTH DIVISION: South Yarra, Western Suburbs, Monash, Corio, Mooroolbark, North Carlton Olympic.

Publicity officers or secretaries should phone me with match reports between 9.30 and 11.30 Sunday morning on 329 7582.

TRAGEDY -AND TRIUMPH

By RICK LAVALE

THE opening District League round last Sunday brought tragedy for Cheltenham and huge scores for Fitzroy and Hawksburn.

The St. Leo's North Altona game against Garden City was a real thriller and striker Tascone pulled North Altona out of the fire with two great goals to help them to a 4-3 win after being 0-2 down early in the game.

Other scorers for North Altona were Agverrise and Latina. Referee S. Taussig handled the game competently and was always in full control.

Fitzroy certainly started the season with a bang. They ran out 18-0 winners against Diamond Creek before a crowd of 100 at Royal Park.

Scorers for Fitzroy were Lia 6, Pasquini 4, Fiorinte 4, Aenoletto 2, Carroro and Paverna. One Fitzroy supporter was so impressed that he donated a set of soccer shirts after the game.

This makes the third set donated in two weeks.

Diamond Creek were not disheartened by the defeat. They feel they have learnt a lot from it and are determined to improve.

At Fawkner Park, 200 saw Hawksburn romp home to a 4-0 win against Frognell. The Frognell team never stopped trying, but were no match for the superior home side.

John Varga, the Hawksburn secretary, feels that this great win stamps his team as a definite premiership prospect.

Cheltenham went down 1-5 to Oakleigh. The tragedy of the day occurred when Cheltenham player Alan Gill, who earlier had scored his side's only goal, had his leg broken in a hard but fair tackle. Alan was taken to hospital by ambulance.

In a low-scoring match, Elsternwick caused an upset by defeating Keon Park 1-0. Lladenovic grabbed the points for Elsternwick with a fine solo run which he capped off with a good goal. Both teams had a goal disallowed for offside, but Elsternwick held on to win.

Ardeer, with two goals from right winger Richard Klimczak, defeated Pascoe Vale 4-2 after leading 3-1 at half time. An error in defence by Ardeer led to their team scoring an own goal in the second half.

Chadstone, who had a bye in the opening round, played a practice match against Mooroolbark, and ran out comfortable 5-2 winners. Scorers for Chadstone were Milne 2, Fox, Ryan and Peril.

West Sunshine United, who last season won the Western Division, have amalgamated with Fourth Division side Deer Park. Emanual Parisis will be the assistant secretary of the new club.

Club secretaries and publicity officers may ring me at 651 6583 during day and 57 5977 after hours.

They're ready for the start

By JOHN ROBB

THIS week has seen the burning of some midnight oil by the Junior Leagues' management to ensure that all fixtures, transfers, registrations, etc., are in order for the opening of junior soccer this weekend.

At the request of the clubs, the committee agreed to the Under 14's, Under 16's and Under 18's playing their games on Saturdays at 10.30 a.m., 1.30 p.m. and 3.00 p.m. respectively, while the Under 10's and Under 12's will kick off at 1 p.m. on Sundays.

The clubs have not been idle, and coaches have put the youngsters through their last big training sessions.

Several clubs organised carnival days and played friendly matches to judge the performance of the boys under match conditions.

The junior players are keen and ready to go, and from what I have seen will provide a lot of worthwhile entertainment.

In the near future a coaching session will take place in Geelong at the request of the Corio Soccer Club.

Several members of the junior committees, with coaches from the coaches' association, will make the journey.

The Geelong Little League has been invited, and has accepted the opportunity of taking part.

A request from the South Australian Federation to send an Under 14 representative team to Victoria with their senior team was accepted by the V.S.F. This game will be played at Olympic Park as a curtain-raiser to the big game. Interstate details of this fixture have still to be finalised.

The Bass Hill R.S.L. Club from the Bankstown area of Sydney also will bring an Under 14 team to Melbourne in late August or September to play several matches.

Other interstate club and representative games will be organised as the season goes on, and we will give you early notice of all intending games.

Incentives for the boys are increasing and the game growing in popularity. The opportunity to represent Victoria is there for all those who play the game well.

Good luck to all clubs in the coming season!

ROW OVER TOP SIGNING

Trouble seems to be brewing between Third Division sides Ballarat and Fourth Division side Mooroolbark United over former English professional Alan Irving.

Both clubs claim to have signed the player and although Irving played for Mooroolbark last Saturday, Ballarat claim to have sponsored him and signed him for their team.

European soccer at crossroads

The English Football League claims that soccer in Europe is at the parting of the ways.

It says a formula for the growth of European soccer has to be found during the next few years and that the path is strewn with pitfalls.

It supports the move for a European soccer calendar with clearly defined dates for each round of the European Cup, Cup Winners' Cup and Inter-Cities Fairs Cup.

But the League is pessimistic about moves by the union of European Football Associations (UEFA) to introduce a new European Cup competition.

The competition would be run on League Cup lines with eight groups of four teams each. Winners of each section would take part in a knockout tournament.

The English League says that UEFA, who complicated the European international fixture problems with their Nations Cup, "now wish to widen the scope for clubs inside Europe and it is the national leagues which are faced with the problems of assimilating the already over-burdened fixture lists."

REFEREE IN DISPUTE

What's going on department? FIFA referee David Maitland is on the State League panel, but is not receiving appointments.

Recently refused readmission to the Referees Association, it would appear that he is being sacrificed on the altar of politics.

Supporters of the game want to know why Maitland is not being used.

Battling for the ball in this dramatic picture from an Arsenal-Burnley first division clash at Highbury Stadium, London, are the Gunners left-half, Peter Simpson (left) and Burnley centre-forward Frank Casper. The Burnley man got his shot in but the ball hit the bar.

HELPED BY SWITCH

BARRY HARTLE, who had a job holding down a place on the left wing with third division Stockport County, suddenly blossomed into a star full-back.

His success came after he was switched into defence by manager Jimmy Meadows, who played with Manchester City.

Meadows himself came good at full-back after starting as a winger, so obviously that had a lot to do with Hartle not being written off when he failed on the wing.

TAFFY LOOKS AT THE POOLS

After last week, with the multiple of draws, it was back to the old form last Saturday.

There were only 13 draws, so the dividends will again be in the four-figure bracket. The break-up of the draws was: Three in the First Division, Four in the Second, Four in the Third and two in the Scottish games on the Vernon's coupon.

The balance of games resulted in nine Aways and 28 Homes, with one match postponed. With two Aways in the Scottish, the dividends for four Aways should be pretty high, but don't expect too much if you have struck it with eight or nine results.

Here are the dividends, in sterling currency, for Saturday, March 29, when there were 19 draws:

VERNONS

Treble Chance: 24 points £1/18/- for a farthing. Only dividend paid.

Twelve Results Pool: 10 correct £71/4/- for twopence; nine correct £3/8/-; eight correct 6/-.

Three draws: 8/-.

Eight Results: 840/-.

Four Aways: 68/-.

Simple Six: 76/-.

LITTLEWOODS

Treble Chance: 24 points £13/1/- for a penny.

Twelve Results Pool: 12 correct £3,749/-/- for twopence; 11 correct £23/8/-, 10 correct £1/4/-.

Three Draws: 10/-.

Nine Results: 120/-.

Four Aways: 92/-.

With only a few weeks to go, it is worth noting that there are only five teams who have not lost at home this season in a League game.

They are Leeds United, Middlesborough, Luton Town, Dunfernline and Motherwell. These are very important when making out the Stakes saving plan for your home winners.

Again, I must remind you to pay special attention to the U.K. League tables, to note the teams fighting for League honors and those desperately trying to avoid relegation.

Soon we will be trying our skill on our local soccer and did you notice last Saturday that of the three State League games played, two of them resulted in drawn games.

Next week we will publish the full local and interstate final league tables to assist us in the coming season when our local soccer will be used on the Pools.

Now for next Saturday week, April 19, in search of those elusive eight draws, here are my selections:

TREBLE CHANCE

*Coventry City v. Nottingham Forest
*Southampton v. Manchester City
Sunderland v. Wolverhampton
Tottenham v. West Ham United
Birmingham v. Middlesborough
Hull City v. Aston Villa
*Norwich City v. Carlisle United Oxford United v. Sheffield United
Bristol Rovers v. Plymouth Argyle
*Brentford v. Peterborough
*Aberdeen v. Kilmarnock
Arbroath v. Clyde
*Hearts v. St. Mirren
*Raith Rovers v. Dundee

THREE DRAWS

Southampton v. Manchester City
Norwich City v. Carlisle
Brentford v. Peterborough

FOUR AWAYS

Nottingham Forest
*Arsenal
*Swindon Town
Darlington
*Workington
*Millwall

Now for our stake saving Pool, the following should win at Home:

EIGHT AND NINE RESULTS POOL

*Chelsea
*Leeds United
*Liverpool
Cardiff City
Charlton Athletic
*Crystal Palace
*Derby County
Northampton Town
*Watford
Aldershot
*Doncaster Rovers
*Celtic
Dundee United
*Rangers
Motherwell

*Indicates best selection

Leeds man with lead boot

One of the forwards most English club defenders worry about — especially in Cup ties—is Leeds man Peter Lorimer, who is nippy and has a cannonball shot.

One opponent, who wished to be nameless, summed him up recently as follows:

"He isn't all that clever on the ball or the greatest setter-up of moves, but you simply can't leave him a clear shot at goal from 35 yards inwards.

"He can disappear from the game for spells but even then you have to be sure you have someone between him and the goal."

JUVENTUS FIND A NEW GOALIE

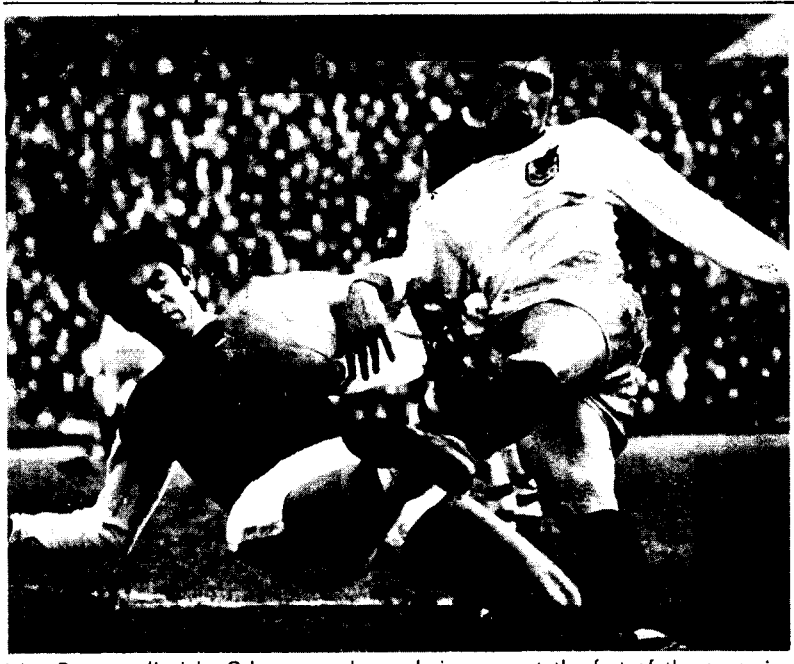
Juventus have got a new goalie, six-footer Jack Reilly, 24, who played with Hibernian in Scotland and in the American professional league.

He'll share the job with Deiter Voigt following the transfer of Ian McDonald to Slavia.

The coach comes back

Back with first division Triestina is Lino Tribuzio, who has stepped into his old job as coach. Before switching to the touchline some years ago Tribuzio played as an inside-forward with Triestina. He also had a coaching spell with Juventus.

Jim Clements, an inside-forward or winger from Moreland, will boost Triestina's title bid this year.



West Brom goalie John Osbourne makes a daring save at the feet of the oncoming Chelsea forward Bobby Tambling in an F.A. Cup clash at Stamford Bridge, London. In the middle is West Brom left-half John Kaye.
